SGU Club e-bulletin

Welcome to the SGU Club e-bulletin - XactAdvice Free Support Service to Clubs

Club representatives who have attended one of the recent Scottish Golf Club Seminars will be aware of an impending service to all affiliated clubs called

XactAdvice

For those who did not attend, the online service will provide golf club-specific HR and Health & Safety best practice, supported by a dedicated helpline free to all affiliated clubs. The service will be provided by specialist golf club service providers, The Xact Group.

The service provides web access to golf club best practice information in respect of

- Human Resource / Employment Law Compliance
- Health and Safety Compliance

This website, which is free of charge to affiliated clubs, includes a comprehensive range of template documents including all specific risk assessments, policies, contracts, job descriptions and employee handbooks, as well as a range of guidance notes and training modules covering the whole range of a golf club's activity.

To help clubs, the website has separate portals for:

- Clubhouse
- Greenkeeping
- Pro Shop
- Kitchen

We have authorised Xact to e-mail all affiliated clubs over the next three days, with details on how to access this site, including advice for your club-specific username and password.
